Dear Mr Weisberg,

I enclose an article by Andrew St. George, the pseudonym of an individual closely identified with The C.I.A. It gives a fairly accurate account of a "Company" operation outside the U.S.A.

The assassination of John F. Kennedy was a classic domestic removal. The ambush was a text-book example and (as per page 143 of "Photographic Whitewash") will no doubt be studied as such.

It was performed in a "safe" City.

The selection of New Orleans as a staging area was logical.

"The Company" had an office there. Para-Military Operations had begun. An apparat of Cuban exiles and employees had already been created.

Prominent citizens (Clay Shaw, William Reily, Dr. Alton Ochsner, William Monteleone) had been recruited as "sponsors" or less innocently as "controllers".

The outcome was inevitable.

The other articles explain themselves.

Certainly, your work is important and I'd be fascinated to read anything you write on the subject.

Best Wishes For The New Year.

Sincerely
Edward R. Williams
